Laura Sar, Head of Cabinet of the President of the Republic of Colombia Gustavo Pedro, has expressed interest and support about the Rome Consensus Manifesto promoted by Villa Maraini with these words: "The Government of President Gustavo Pedro expresses a positive view on the commitment of civil society toward the promotion of humanitarian drug policies and considers of the utmost importance changing the prohibitionist approach in favour of innovative and updated strategies focused on public health, respect of human rights and international cooperation on the topic. So we really appreciate the kindly shared information about the 'Rome Consensus 2.0 toward an humanitarian drug policy'. These words show that the attitude toward the topic of drug abuse is changing globally, even in countries that face great problems in this field.
